

Problem/ Cases & Solution

Template:

- Introduction (Paraphrase + 2 Cases + 2 Solution) (Words: 40-45)
- Body 1: 2 Cases + explanation + example (Words: 80-85)
- Body 2: 2 Solutions +explanation + example (Words: 85-90)
- Conclusion: Summary of both bodies(Words: 40-50)

Planning:

- planning 3-5 minutes
- writing 30 minutes
- Proof reading 5 minutes

How to write?

Introduction (40–45 words)

Opening Statement (General background):

In today's rapidly evolving world, various societal and global challenges continue to emerge.

Paraphrasing the statement:

One such significant issue is [paraphrase the topic in a formal, academic tone].

Statement before causes:

This problem derives from a combination of contributing factors.

Statement before solutions:

Nonetheless, there are feasible and effective strategies that can be implemented to resolve it.

Body Paragraph 1 – Causes (80–85 words)

Body 1 Starting Statement:

There are two principal causes that give rise to this concerning issue.

Cause 1 + Explanation + Example:

Firstly, [state cause 1], which often results from [brief explanation using higher-level vocabulary]. For example, [provide a relevant and specific instance, preferably real or plausible].

Cause 2 + Explanation + Example:

Secondly, [state cause 2] plays a major role. This is largely due to [clear explanation]. A notable example of this can be seen in [insert example].

Body Paragraph 2 – Solutions (85–90 words)

Body 2 Starting Statement:

A counterargument asserts that, a number of practical and well-targeted solutions can be adopted to mitigate the risk of [topic].

Solution 1 + Explanation + Example:

One effective approach is to [state solution 1]. This solution is impactful as it directly addresses [the underlying cause]. For instance, [offer a clear and illustrative example].

Solution 2 + Explanation + Example:

Another viable strategy would be to [state solution 2], which can substantially reduce the problem by [explanation]. A relevant example of this would be [example].

Conclusion (40–50 words)

Conclusion Starting Statement:

To recapitulate, multi-faceted approaches uncover, [restate the issue] stems mainly from [briefly mention both causes].

Summary of solutions:

However, by implementing targeted measures such as [briefly summarize both solutions], the situation can be significantly improved.

Final comment (optional):

Proactive involvement from both individuals and authorities is essential for meaningful progress.

Template okay ha