

IDIOMS

IDIOMS	MEANING / SITUATION
To bite the bullet	To force your self to do something unpleasant, or to be brave in difficult situation
Kill two birds with one stone	to achieve two things with a single action
My take on this	What do you think about it it's the bees knees (I love going into the country side, it's the bees knees.)	this is best i am in two minds about it	if this idea is not good to my way of thinking	what is your opinion
Let the cat out of the bag	to disclose a secret,
Do not put all of your eggs in one basket	to not rely on one idea
Once in the blue moon	rare, sometime,
Burn the midnight oil	to work hard on something
Burn the candle at both ends	going to bed late and wake up early to do something immediately, without hesitation
Cry over spilt milk	to waste time feeling upset about something that has already happened and cannot be changed.
Go the extra mile	To make more effort
Raining cats and dogs	raining very heavy it can not hold a candle to	comparison
not a patch on	comparison to compare apples and oranges	comparison
I can not get my hand around it	confused
I can not make head or tail of it	I do not know anything about it

I am boils down to this	most important thing it this to have a sweet tooth	love sweet dishes
food of thought (a good book to be a food of thought)	best of ideas
a drop in the ocean	do not have impact to make a long story short	conclusion
bread and butter	give more advantage to break the bank	costly
to bite off more than you can chew	take a big task out of the capacity
The best of both worlds	benefits of both sides
One size fits all once-in-a-lifetime experience stitched into the fabric of my soul tough nut to crack double-edged sword
People never rise above the opinion of themselves.

Most Common Opening in IELTS Speaking

- Preference Question: Start with direct answer to get immediate focus:

Do you prefer to study in the morning or at night? I would say I generally prefer morning, simply because...

Do you think children should learn to cook at school? : Actually, in my opinion, it depends on...

- Describe a time: Direct recall the past experience

Describe a time when you travelled somewhere new? : well, I remember last year I visited the hunza valley just after my exams with my CZN, who is much curious about the tour as i am

If you could live in any city, where would you choose? : I would probably choose London because it is vibrant.

- When you are unsure about something well, it depends on the person, because... if i am a student in this situation —— if i am parent ——use IF.

- Location (Part 1)

I live in Gujranwala, is famously know as the city of wristlers...

- Part 3 (Acknowledge the complexity of the question, Do analysis of the question)

why do some people chose to live in cities rather than rural areas?

That's an interesting question. I think some people enjoy the convenience while others....

- Example

can you give an example of when you learned something new?

certainly, For example, last year I.....